Gli Elementi

Jean Balissat

Français: L'évocation musicale des quatre éléments donne au compositeur l'occasion de rechercher des atmosphères contrastées ; notamment dans le traitement de la percussion.

La terre, concrète, puissante, hymnique, exploite l'effet viscéral produit par la grosse caisse, les timbales, les tom-toms et les bongos.

Puis le compositeur décrit l'eau qui ruisselle des collines et serpente dans les prés, souple et fluide. Les claviers (vibraphone, marimba, xylophone) sont employés ici, comme dans l'air où ils deviennent transparents et impalpables, mêlés aux sourdines des cornets.

Le feu, tour à tour mystérieux, incantatoire, effrayant, destructeur, termine cette suite en combinant les possibilités offertes par les peaux, les claviers, les cymbales, les tam-tam, les wood-blocks et, bien sûr, tout l'éventail des cuivres.

English: Attempting to evoke the four elements in music allows the composer to experiment with contrasting atmospheres, especially in the use of the percussion.

The earth, concrete, powerful, hymn-like, makes use of the physical, almost primitive effect of the bass drum, timpani, tom-toms and bongos.

In the following movement, the composer portrays water, streaming down from the hills and meandering in the meadows, pliant and fluid. The mallets (vibraphone, marimba and xylophone) come to the fore here, as they do also in the next movement, the air, where they become transparent and ethereal, blending with the sound of the muted cornets.

Fire, alternately mysterious, spell-binding, terrifying and destructive, forms the last movement of the suite and makes use of the varied effects provided by drums, mallets, cymbals, tam-tam and woodblocks as well as the whole range of brass instruments.

Deutsch: Die vier Elemente musikalisch schildern zu wollen, gibt dem Komponisten die Gelegenheit gegensätzliche Stimmungen zu schaffen, vor allem durch die Behandlung des Schlagzeugs.

Die Erde, konkret, kräftig und hymnisch, benützt die urtümliche Wirkung der grossen Trommel, der Pauken, der Tom-toms und der Bongos.

Im zweiten Satz beschreibt der Komponist das Wasser, das von den Bergen herunterrieselt und sich in den Feldern windet, schmiegsam und flüssig. Hier kommen die Tasteninstrumente (Vibraphon, Marimba und Xylophon) zur Geltung, was auch bei der Luft der Fall ist, wo sie durchsichtig und unfassbar werden und sich mit dem Klang der gedämpften Kornette mischen.

Das Feuer, abwechselnd geheimnisvoll, bezaubernd, erschreckend und zerstörerisch, bildet den Schluss der Suite und vereint die verschiedenen Klangmöglichkeiten der Trommeln, der Tasteninstrumente, der Becken, des Tam-tams und der Holzblöcke, sowie auch sämtlicher Blechinstrumente.
