Notes for the conductor / Bemerkungen für den Dirigenten / Remarques pour le directeur

English: The passage from bar 238 where the musicians are instructed to sing can be treated very freely, at the conductor's discretion. The composer recommends the use of singing if possible, as it greatly adds to the drama of this scene; however if the musicians find this difficult, it can be omitted. In this case perhaps other instruments can play as well as the clarinets, probably other woodwind instruments rather than brass. On the other hand, if the best singers are amongst the clarinets, they can sing and the saxophones can play! The conductor must organise this according to the specific composition of his ensemble. The text imitates the sounds of the Nahuatl language, but does not mean anything. Any other syllables such as na, la or ah can be substituted. Another possibility is to use a separate chorus, for which a special part is provided. The flute glissandi starting at bar 195 are to be played by varying the intonation with the breath. The player should start on an A, and flatten the note as much as possible (or also sharpen it). If this is too difficult, the notes A and G# can be played in the given rhythm but without any glissando.

Deutsch: Die Passage ab Takt 238 wo die Musiker singen sollen, kann nach Ermessen des Dirigenten frei behandelt werden. Der Komponist empfiehlt wohl das Singen, wegen der dramatischen Wirkung; aber falls die Musiker dies zu schwierig finden, kann es wegfallen. In diesem Fall sollen vielleicht andere Instrumente (ausser den Klarinetten) mitspielen - lieber andere Holzinstrumente als Blech. Andererseits, falls die besten Sänger sich bei den Klarinetten befinden, können die Klarinettisten singen, während die Saxophone spielen! Der Dirigent soll dies je nach der spezifischen Zusammensetzung seines Ensembles organisieren. Der Text imitiert die Laute der Nahuatl-Sprache, bedeutet aber nichts. Andere Silben, wie na, la oder ah können verwendet werden. Eine weitere Möglichkeit wäre, einen separaten Chor zu verwenden, wofür eine Sonderstimme geliefert wird. Die Flöten-Glissandi ab Takt 195 sollten durch Ändern der Intonation mit dem Atem verwirklicht werden. Der Flötist soll zuerst ein A spielen, dann diesen Ton so weit wie möglich erniedrigen (oder auch eventuell erhöhen). Falls dies zu schwierig erscheint, kann er auch einfach die A und Gis im vorgeschriebenen Rhythmus spielen, aber ohne glissando.

Français: Le passage dès mesure 238, où les musiciens sont censés chanter, peut être traité avec une grande liberté, à la discrétion du directeur. Le compositeur recommande vivement l'utilisation du chant, pour son effet hautement dramatique, mais il peut être omis si les musiciens le trouvent trop difficile. Dans ce cas d'autres instruments devraient jouer la mélodie en plus des clarinettes, probablement les autres bois plutôt que les cuivres.

D'autre part, si les meilleurs chanteurs se trouvent par hasard parmi les clarinettistes, ceux derniers peuvent chanter, tandis que les saxophones jouent! Le directeur doit organiser ceci en fonction de la composition spécifique de son ensemble. Le texte imite les sons de la langue Nahuatl, mais ne signifie rien. D'autres syllabes telles que na, la ou ah peuvent être utilisées. Une autre possibilité est d'employer un chœur à part. Une partie de chœur séparée est fournie à cet effet.

Les glissandi pour la flûte (dès mesure 195) devraient être réalisés en variant l'intonation avec le souffle. Le musicien doit jouer un la, et baisser la note autant que possible; il peut aussi éventuellement la hausser. Si ceci s'avère trop difficile, il peut aussi simplement jouer les la et sol dièse dans le rythme écrit, mais sans glisser.

TEXT 1

English: I, Hernán Cortés, will relate the greatest adventure of my life, one of the greatest adventures of all time. In the year 1519 we set sail from Cuba in 11 ships, with 500 men and 16 horses. Our aim: the conquest of the Aztec Empire, with its vast quantities of gold. The voyage was perilous; we nearly lost all in a terrible storm.

Deutsch: Ich, Hernán Cortés, werde Ihnen das grösste Abenteuer meines Lebens erzählen - wohl eins der grössten Abenteure aller Zeit. Im Jahr 1519 segelten wir in 11 Schiffen aus Kuba, mit 500 Männern und 16 Pferden. Unser Ziel: die Eroberung des Aztekischen Reichs, mit seiner riesigen Menge Gold. Die Fahrt war sehr gefährlich; fast verloren wir alles in einem furchtbaren Sturm.

Français: Moi, Hernán Cortés, je vous raconterai la plus grande aventure de ma vie, une des plus grandes aventures de tous les temps. En l'année 1519 nous partîmes de Cuba dans 11 navires, avec 500 hommes et 16 chevaux. Notre but: la conquête de l'empire aztèque, avec son immense quantité d'or. Le voyage fut périlleux, nous faillîmes perdre tout dans une tempête terrible.

English: The storm nearly sank our ships, and many men fell ill and died, but at last we arrived exhausted on the coast of Mexico. We set up camp and rested, gathering strength for the long march to the interior. Suddenly, in the middle of the night, the sound of native drums awoke us. Hordes of Indians rushed out of the jungle to attack us. We were outnumbered, but they had never encountered firearms, and our muskets terrified them. The bravery of our men did the rest, and the Indians suffered many losses. The survivors crept away into the forest.

Deutsch: Der Sturm versenkte fast unsere Schiffe, und etliche Männer erkrankten und starben. Aber schliesslich landeten wir, erschöpft, an der Küste Mexikos. Wir errichteten ein Lager, um uns vor dem langen Marsch zum Inneren des Landes zu erholen. Plötzlich, mitten in der Nacht, wurden wir durch den Klang einheimischer Trommeln geweckt. Unzählige Indianer stürzten sich aus dem Dschungel und griffen uns an. Wir waren in der Minderheit, aber sie hatten nie Schusswaffen gesehen, und unsere Musketen erschreckten sie wieder, sowie die Pferde. Unsere Männer kämpften mutig, so dass die Indianer grosse Verluste hatten. Die Überlebenden flüchteten wieder in den Urwald.

Français: La tempête faillit faire couler nos navires, et bien des hommes tombèrent malade et moururent. Mais enfin nous débarquâmes, épuisés, sur la côte du Mexique. Nous établîmes un camp pour reprendre nos forces pour la longue marche vers l'intérieur du pays. Tout d'un coup, au milieu de la nuit, le son de tambours indigènes nous réveilla. D'innombrables Indiens sortirent précipitamment de la jungle pour nous attaquer. Ils furent bien plus nombreux, mais ils n'avaient jamais vu des armes à feu, et nos mousquets les effrayèrent. Nos hommes se battirent courageusement, et les Indiens subirent des pertes importantes. Les survivants se sauvèrent de nouveau dans la forêt.

English: After many days march, we finally arrived at the great Aztec capital, Tenochtitlan. What a sight met our weary eyes! A dream city built on a lake, with massive temples bursting with gold.....everywhere we looked, there was gold. The Aztecs accepted us as guests, I believe they thought we were gods. They fed us, they gave us gold. But they were not Christians - they worshipped a terrible god who demanded human sacrifice. The brutality was hard to believe - the victim's heart was cut from his living body and burnt. One day, we were present at this god's festival. A thousand Aztecs, dressed only in loincloths and jewellery, danced and sang in honour of this foul deity. Human sacrifices were prepared. My men could bear it no longer, and threw themselves into the crowd of worshippers, slaying them with their great swords of Spanish steel. A massacre ensued; we were greatly outnumbered, but once again our guns terrified the Aztecs, as did the horses, which they had never seen before. Much blood was spilt, but at last the city of dreams was ours.

Deutsch: Nach einem langen Marsch, erreichten wir endlich die aztekische Hauptstadt, Tenochtitlan. Welche Augenweide! Eine Traumstadt, auf einem See gebaut, mit riesigen Tempeln voll von Gold.....überall, wo wir hinschaute, war Gold. Die Azteken empfingen uns als Gäste, wahrscheinlich glaubten sie, dass wir Götter waren. Sie ernährten uns, sie gaben uns sogar Gold. Aber sie waren keine Christen - sie beteten einen schrecklichen Gott an, der menschliche Opfer verlangte. Die Grausamkeit war unglaublich - das Herz des Opfers wurde aus seinem lebendigen Leib zerrissen und verbrannt. Eines Tages wohnten wir den Festtag dieses Gottes bei. Tausend Azteken, nur mit Lendentüchern und Schmuck gekleidet, tanzten und sangen, diesem entsetzlichen Gott zu Ehren. Menschliche Opfer waren vorbereitet. Meine Männer hielten es nicht mehr aus, und sich in die Menge von Anbetern stürzend, schlachteten sie mit ihren grossen Schwerten aus spanischem Stahl. Es erfolgte ein Massaker. Die Azteken waren viel zahlreicher, aber unsere Flinten erschreckten sie wieder, so wie auch die Pferde, die sie nie vorher gesehen hatten. Viel Blut wurde vergossen, aber am Schluss gehörte die Traumstadt uns.

Français: Après une longue marche, nous arrivâmes finalement à la capitale aztèque, Tenochtitlan. Quel spectacle merveilleux! Une cité de rêve, bâtie sur un lac, avec d'immenses temples, pleins d'or! Partout où nous regardâmes, il y avait de l'or. Les Aztèques nous accueillirent les bras ouverts, croyant peut-être que nous étions des dieux. Ils nous donnèrent à manger, et nous offrirent même de l'or. Mais ils n'étaient point chrétiens - ils adoraient un dieu monstrueux, qui exigeait des sacrifices humains. La brutalité de ce culte était incroyable - le cœur était arraché du corps vivant de la victime et jeté dans le feu. Un jour, nous assistâmes à une fête religieuse, où mille Aztèques, vêtus seulement de pagnes et de bijoux, dansèrent et chantèrent à l'honneur de ce dieu répugnant. On prépara des sacrifices humains. Mes hommes ne supportèrent plus ce spectacle odieux, et se lancèrent dans la foule, tuant les chanteurs et danseurs avec leurs immenses épées en acier espagnol. Il eut lieu un vrai massacre; nous étions bien moins nombreux, mais de nouveau nos fusils les épouvantèrent, ainsi que nos chevaux, qu'ils n'avaient jamais vu. Beaucoup de sang fut versé, mais à la fin la cité de rêves nous appartint.
