Meeting

Jean-François Michel

Français:

MEETING est une pièce captivante du compositeur Jean-François Michel, connue pour son dynamisme et son écriture musicale raffinée. Cette œuvre pleine d'énergie et de contrastes, illustre une rencontre musicale entre un Quatuor de Trombones et un Orchestre d'Harmonie.

Dès les premières mesures, l'auditeur est plongé dans une atmosphère rythmique entraînante, marquée par des motifs mélodiques incisifs et des dialogues instrumentaux riches. La pièce s'ouvre sur un motif percussif énergique, qui sert de socle à une écriture vive et brillante.

Les cuivres y jouent un rôle essentiel, avec des appels éclatants et des réponses ciselées, tandis que les bois apportent des couleurs plus légères et nuancées. Le jeu entre tension et relâchement donne à cette composition une dynamique narrative captivante.

Le développement explore différentes textures sonores, intégrant des passages plus lyriques où les harmonies s'élargissent, créant une sensation de respiration avant de relancer l'énergie du discours musical.

L'influence du jazz et de la musique contemporaine se fait parfois sentir dans les rythmes syncopés et l'écriture harmonique audacieuse, conférant à l'ensemble une modernité séduisante.

L'œuvre culmine dans une section finale exaltante, où tous les pupitres fusionnent dans une envolée brillante et festive, laissant l'auditeur avec une impression d'aboutissement triomphal.

Avec MEETING, Jean-François Michel signe une pièce dynamique et accessible, idéale pour des concerts où virtuosité et expressivité doivent se conjuguer.

« A ce très beau texte de présentation j'aimerais ajouter que la deuxième partie de la pièce: choral et récitatif est un hommage à la plus belle des pages écrites pour ensemble de cuivres: les Trois Aequales de L. v. Beethoven. Une composition d'une géniale simplicité. Dans ce mouvement j'ai essayé de trouver cette sincérité à fleur de peau. »

Jean-François Michel

English:

MEETING is a captivating work by the composer Jean-François Michel, known for his dynamism and refined musical writing. Full of energy and contrasts, this work illustrates a musical encounter between a trombone quartet and a wind band.

From the very first bars, the listener is immersed in a stirring rhythmic atmosphere, characterised by incisive melodic motifs and rich instrumental dialogue. The piece opens with an energetic percussive motif that serves as the foundation for the bright, vibrant writing.

Brass instruments play an essential role here, with dazzling calls and precise responses, while the woodwind provides lighter, more subtle colours. The interplay of tension and release gives this composition a compelling narrative dynamic.

The development explores different sonic textures, incorporating more lyrical passages where harmonies expand, creating a sense of breathing before the energy of the musical discourse is reinvigorated.

The influence of jazz and contemporary music is sometimes felt in the syncopated rhythms and bold harmonic writing, giving the work a seductive modernity.

The work culminates in an exhilarating final section where all the instruments in a brilliant, festive flight, leaving the listener with a sense of triumphant achievement.

With MEETING, Jean-François Michel has written a dynamic and accessible piece, ideal for concerts where virtuosity and expressiveness must be combined.

"I would like to add that the second part of the piece: chorale and recitative, is a tribute to the most beautiful of all pages written for brass ensemble: L. v. Beethoven's Three Equals. A composition of ingenious simplicity. In this movement, I've tried to find that natural sincerity."
