Naomi Rebecca Hill

Naomi Rebecca Hill was born in 2002 in The United Kingdom, in the North of England in West Yorkshire. Growing up in The Salvation Army, Naomi has been surrounded by musical influences from a very young age; it is from here where her passion for music is rooted and where her brass playing, and composing began. This influence, particularly as a composer, continues to remain an important part of her work and musical identity. Naomi is a Baritone and Euphonium player, composer and arranger and as a music student she has studied performance, conducting, musicological research and composition at The University of Huddersfield, graduating with a First-Class Honours BMus Music degree and the University Brass Prize in 2023.

She is now pursuing postgraduate level study undertaking a Masters in Performance at The University of Huddersfield. Surrounded by a rich heritage of brass bands, situated in Yorkshire, Naomi performs regularly with brass bands, sometimes as a soloist and also enjoys performing with other ensembles such as symphonic wind orchestras and chamber groups on both the Euphonium and Baritone Horn.

For Naomi performance comes hand in hand with composition and these aspects of her musicianship greatly influence one another. Her musical roles within her Salvation Army church, at university and in ensembles more widely and also her keen interest in teaching and leading young instrumentalists also all interlink and continue to expand upon Naomi's existing passions and outlets.

As a composer Naomi writes for various instrument combinations and ensembles, but she particularly finds fulfilment in composing and arranging for brass, exploring the diverse tonal qualities and nuances of brass instruments, and exploring these in her experimentation of different harmonic colours.

Her focus on harmony is often a key area of exploration for her as a composer - this underpins the continuing development of her own personal compositional style. In recent years Naomi's composition output has increased and her music has been performed, programmed in a brass band entertainment contest, and recorded on occasions by ensembles. She has also received composition prizes – she was shortlisted as a finalist for the A4 Brass Quartet Composition Competition in 2022 and awarded the Under 24 Award.

Most recently Naomi received first prize in Foden's Band Female Composer Competition in 2023 with a 6-minute original work for brass band. She also received a commission to compose a short piece for brass ensemble as part of 'Kirklees Year of Music 2023' which was recorded by a brass ensemble and the track later released.

Naomi's composing, like her performing, covers a range of genres and ensemble types from chamber groups, choral, piano, brass and wind, and brass bands. Through her varied areas of work as a music graduate, she is particularly passionate about drawing emphasis to the way music can transform and unite society, and also aid communication, nurture individuals and cultivate creativity in a way that is unique, and this holds intrinsic value to society and is an important aspect to Naomi's musicianship.

March - Onwards

Brass Band

Naomi Rebecca Hill

English: ‘Onwards’ is an original composition for brass band. The music is written in a march style, with a contemporary approach. The music intends to be playful and should be played with energy. The middle section acts as a second melody which is derived from the original march melody that we see at either side of it – this section can be played more lyrically, but should still remain rhythmic. The little moments of characters throughout the band contribute to the overall energy of the march, these moments should be enjoyed and brought to the forefront, as and when they arise. Importantly, the music should be played with enthusiasm and joy, with a careful observation to the finer delicate details of the music, especially in the detailed articulation and dynamics. Importantly the music should never become too forceful, but a full overall traditional brass band march sound, that brass bands know so well, is envisioned and should be observed throughout ‘Onwards’.

Français: ‘Onwards’ est une composition originale pour Brass Band. La musique est écrite dans un style de marche, avec une approche contemporaine. La musique se veut ludique et doit être jouée avec énergie. La section centrale agit comme une deuxième mélodie dérivée de la mélodie de marche originale que l'on voit de part et d'autre - cette section peut être jouée de manière plus lyrique, mais doit néanmoins rester rythmique. Les petits moments de caractère à travers l'orchestre contribuent à l'énergie globale de la marche ; ces moments doivent être appréciés et mis en avant, au moment où ils se présentent. Il est important de jouer la musique avec enthousiasme et joie, en observant attentivement les détails délicats de la musique, notamment dans l'articulation et la dynamique détaillées. Il est important que la musique ne devienne jamais trop puissante, mais un son de marche de Brass Band traditionnel et complet, que les Brass Bands connaissent si bien, est envisagé et doit être observé tout au long de ‘Onwards’

Deutsch: ‘Onwards’ ist eine Originalkomposition für Brass Band. Die Musik ist im Marschstil mit einem zeitgenössischen Ansatz geschrieben. Die Musik will spielerisch sein und sollte mit Energie gespielt werden. Der Mittelteil dient als zweite Melodie, die von der ursprünglichen Marschmelodie abgeleitet ist. Dieser Abschnitt kann lyrischer gespielt werden, sollte aber dennoch rhythmisch bleiben. Kleine Charaktermomente quer durchs Orchester tragen zur Gesamtenergie des Marsches bei; diese Momente sollten genossen und hervorgehoben werden. Es ist essenziell, dass die Musik mit Enthusiasmus und Freude gespielt wird, wobei auf die feinen Details des Stücks geachtet werden sollte, insbesondere auf die detaillierte Artikulation und Dynamik. Wichtig ist, dass die Musik nie zu kraftvoll wird. Dennoch ist ein insgesamt traditioneller Klang eines Brassbands-Marsches, den Brassbands so gut kennen, vorgesehen und sollte während ‘Onwards’ angestrebt werden.
